

Kevin Sipp

Mayor's Office of Cultural Affairs, Atlanta, GA

Project Supervisor for Gallery 72, Chastain Arts Center Gallery, and the Mayor's Gallery at City Hall

Over 20 years of experience creating functional resources and spaces for visual artists and community – based artists in all disciplines (cultural workers, arts supporters) in metro Atlanta, Southeast region and globally. Oversee audience and program development and outreach, the selection and acquisition of art and photography exhibitions, coordinator of transportation, insurance, installation and security for art exhibit material, facilitation of shipping, receiving and hanging of art to ensure effective display in diverse locations including historic homes, professional museums and gallery spaces.

Artist Biography

Kevin Sipp is a fine artist, independent scholar, and curator with expertise in printmaking, painting, sculpture and multi-media installation. A Florida native, he has lived and worked in Georgia since the early 90's where he received a BA in Printmaking from the Atlanta College of Art.

Fine Art & Prints

Sipp's fine art works have appeared in solo and group exhibitions throughout the country and internationally. His fine art prints have been featured in exhibitions by noted curators such as renowned Master Printmaker Malcom Christian, Founder of Caversham Press in Balgowan, South Africa. His foundational aesthetic focus examines the spritual, political, social, and historical influence of African derived culture in the world often making references to African Myth, Afro-Futurism, Cultural Identity, Colonial History, past and contemporary music, politics and comics.

Lectures , Poetry & Events

Kevin is a highly sought-after public speaker whose lectures have inspired and entertained audiences at college campuses such as Brandeis University and the Emory University Michael C. Carlos Museum, including Arnall Golden & Gregory Law Firm, festivals and comic book conventions. His poetry has also been featured during the National Black Arts Festival sharing the stage with such luminaries as Amiri Baraka, Sonia Sanchez and the poets of the Nuyorica Cafe.